Admiral Dewey Soon to Return

NEW YORK, May 5.—A Washington special to the Herald says: There is reason to believe President McKinley has been advised that Admiral Dewey contemplates coming home within a short time. His return will, of course, be dependent upon the success of the commission's presents negotiations with the Filipinos. As soon as they have laid down their arms, it is expected he will probably go through Suez canal to New York, and come immediately to Washington to consult with the President regarding the Philippines. Rear Admiral Watson, commandant of the Mare Island Navy Yard, probably will be selected to succeed Admiral Dewey in command of the Asiatic station.

Aguinaldo Defeated.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Aguinaldo is ready to surrender, and the white flag may be raised by the insurgent army as soon as a message can be carried to him from Manila. President Schurman of the Philippines Commission cabled the President to day information which indicated the readiness of the insurgent leader to surrender and recognize the authority of the United States. The President has sent the instructions desired. It is believed here the insurrection is at an end, and there will be no further resistance to the American army.
